Cabazon Shifts Annexation Aim Toward Banning

Cabazon city council last night started moving in another direction, seeking to annex all land to within one mile of the City of Banning.

Previously, the governing body of the newly incorporated city expressed interest in coming to within one mile of Palm Springs.

Reason given for the annexation to the east was the inclusion of the weighing scales at the intersection of Highways 99 and 111. Palm Springs city council earlier this week went on record as opposing the annexation.

Revenue from the weighing scales was earlier estimated at $85,000, but The Desert Sun learned yesterday that fees levied so far this year are up, and that the total take to be split by the state and county (or Cabazon if the annexation goes through) would be nearer to $120,000.

Private sources also indicated that if the annexation went through, the state is likely to move the weighing station, as it is against state policy to operate within an incorporated area.

Plywood Firm Sues Long-Bell for $85,000,000

SEATTLE — An $85 million damage suit was filed yesterday against Long-Bell Lumber Co., which was accused by Harbor Plywood Corp., of "fraudulent scheming to eliminate competition."

The Long-Bell firm is one of the nation's largest corporations, headquarters at Kansas City. It has huge timber holdings in Washington, Oregon and Northern California and holds the major stock interest in Harbor Plywood, which maintains its head office in Aberdeen, Wash.

Norton W. Simon, Los Angeles financier and chairman of the board of Harbor Plywood, charged Long-Bell entered into an "illegal, fraudulent and secret scheme to obtain control of Harbor Plywood and its timber resources."

A MONTANA STORY

A See-bee's Grand Pa

Saying is one thing and doing is another.

In Montana a railway bridge had been destroyed by fire, and it was necessary to replace it. The bridge engineer and his staff were ordered in haste to the place. Two days later came the superintendent of the division. Alighting from his private car, he encountered the old master bridge-builder. "Bill," said the superintendent — and the words quivered with energy — "I want this job rushed. Every hour's delay costs the company money. Have you got the engineer's plans for the new bridge?" "I don't know," said the bridge-builder, "whether the engineer has the picture drawn yet or not, but the bridge is up and the trains is passin' over it."

DESERT CIRCUS GROUP LAYS PLANS FOR NATIONAL PUBLICITY

The Big Top Ball at Thunderbird Country Club and the Little Top Ball at the American Legion will be among the many Desert Circus features discussed at a press conference designed to bring national publicity to Palm Springs during Circus Week, April 18 to 22.

Songwriter Jimmy McHugh has donated the use of his Beverly Hills home to the Desert Circus committee, it was announced by Village realtor John Haskell last night at the meeting for the Desert Circus planners, held at the Ranch Club.

With the announcement that the Big Top Ball will be at Thunderbird Friday evening, April 20, plans were made to use the same band at a $2-a-person Little Top Ball the following night at the American Legion on Belardo Road.

CO-CHAIRMAN RAY Corliss and Jimmy Cooper, and president Jimmy Morton led a discussion concerning the Little Top Ball which concerned teen-age patronage.

It was decided by most of the 50 members in attendance to pipe music to the Youth Center next door to the Legion Hall so the teen-agers could dance to the same music as the adults without being close to liquor.

Council's Ban on Airport Office Rapped

Hanousek Hints Move Kills Big Village Project

Denial by city council of a request by Richard Hanousek, representing Braemar Estates, asking permission to contract through the operators of the airport for fly-in office space, was labeled ridiculous by Hanousek yesterday. The councilmen denied the request on the grounds it was incompatible with present airport use.

Hanousek told council during a lull in voting that three of the key persons in Braemar Estates have their own licenses to fly and that the office would not be used as a sales office, but his pleas failed to stop council from denying the request by a 4-3 vote.

Hanousek said the office would be used as a meeting place for sub-contractors, suppliers and draftsmen concerning a business other than the present real estate development to be built near Tamarisk Country Club.

He told the group he could not divulge the nature of the proposed activities, but that they would be "big," and bring publicity to Palm Springs as well as his corporation.

Hanousek in branding the vote ridiculous said they wouldn't have stopped him if they had known the details, but he still was not at liberty to release the nature of the upcoming business, which he labeled as bigger than the present construction plan.

Scan Caribbean for 6 Planes of 16 Missionaries

MIAMI, Fla. — The Navy and Coast Guard searched Caribbean waters today for six small planes with possibly 16 missionaries aboard which disappeared late Thursday.

The planes, part of a group of nine light aircraft on a goodwill mission, vanished on a 200-mile overwater flight from Camaguey, Cuba, to Kingston, Jamaica.

The Navy sent ships and planes from its big base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, just east of the route of the small planes, into the area at dawn to join Coast Guard planes and surface craft in the hunt. The Coast Guard diverted the cutter Aurora to the scene and called on its Florida air stations to begin the search at dawn.

School Board Approves Complete Reorganization of Cafeteria System

Approval of the complete reorganizational plan for the cafeteria system of this school district was given last night by the board of education.

Among the changes were the hiring of a new supervisor of school lunches at $455 per month, to begin on or about the first of March, revamping of the accounting and purchasing system; discontinuance of the high school snack line (hot dogs, hamburgers, and milk shakes) and sale of candy; and the authorization of a school lunch program at Calhoun, Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs, Frances Stevens, Katherine Finchy and the high school.

Biggest question on the acceptance was brought up by Helen Staley on the discontinuance of the snack bar at the high school, and opinions against this proposal were voiced by student representatives in the audience, but on the motion by Haig Harris to accept the changes as presented, seconded by Dr. Hugh Stephens, the board voted unanimously to do so.

Europe's Freeze Begins to Ease

LONDON — A North African warm front today eased winter's grip on most of Western Europe where at least 850 persons have died in the worst cold spell of the century.

Board Told to Approve Turf Club

Judge Asserts State Body Wants Racing Monopoly

A legal battle to the State Supreme Court, and possibly the United States Supreme Court was foreseen today as a result of Judge John G. Gabbert's order to the California Horse Racing Board to grant the Palm Springs Turf Club a license for a thoroughbred track.

Judge Gabbert granted a pre-emptory writ of mandate commanding the board to "set aside and vacate" its refusal of July 26, 1954, of a license for a thoroughbred track.

The California Horse Racing Board was unavailable for comment, but it is believed that an appeal will be filed prior to the March 5 deadline.

JUDGE GABBERT paved the way for an appeal to the highest court when he said in his fact-finding explanation that the board's action was "contrary to and in violation of the constitution and laws of the State of California and the constitution of the United States."

Specifically, he said that the board violated the 14th amendment to the U. S. Constitution in that the denial "deprives the petitioner of its property without due process of law and denies to the petitioner the equal protection of the laws."

The board denied the petition as not being in the public interest, but did not explain its action, the basis upon which the Turf Club's suit was filed.

THE JUDGE ALSO said that the board's denial of the license "constitutes an intentional unconstitutional application of the California Horse Racing Act by preventing and destroying the uniform application of said act and interpreting and applying it as a special and local law, granting the existing thoroughbred tracks already licensed the exclusive right and privilege to conduct such thoroughbred racing in the State of California."

He charged that the board is attempting to protect a "virtual monopoly" of thoroughbred racing in California.

The Turf Club recently purchased property just outside the city limits of Palm Springs, where the track would be located.

NO ACTION CAN be taken on construction though, until the legal battle has been concluded, according to George Gannon, director of the club.

Club directors are to meet soon to discuss yesterday's decision and to plan future moves.

HARRY OLIVER POSES, AND KEEPS EYES RIGHT

Harry Oliver, commander in chief of Fort Oliver and publisher of the Desert Sun Scrapbook, forsook his Thousand Palms estate and his many "critters" to subject himself to the whims of formalized artists.

Oliver sat for the second time at the Adult Evening School art class Wednesday meeting. He claimed to have increased attendance at least 25 per cent over last week.

According to George Mannington, director of the Adult Evening school, about 15 amateur artists have been learning to paint under the guidance of Village Brownell McGrew.

Oliver said more than 20 persons showed up for the lesson. He assumed they appeared after hearing he was to pose.

He said the extra turn-out bolstered his self-esteem, but caused technical posing problems.

McGrew instructed the Desert Rat to sit still, and to look straight ahead for a half hour at a time.

OLIVER SAID everything was going fine until the second sitting period. A lovely product of the desert, about 22-years-old and fresh as a sunrise, arrived to paint.

McGrew placed her at right angles to Oliver, and was troubled the rest of the night keeping the model's eyes "straight ahead."

Oliver proved that though he cannot be kept from absorbing the desert's beauty, he can enjoy the solitude of public privacy. He didn't say a word all night.

Jap Prison Life Described by Dr. M. J. Smith

Dr. M. Joseph Smith, Coachella minister, and a former missionary in the Orient, addressed Palm Springs Lions Club at the Chi Chi yesterday, describing his experiences in a Japanese internment camp and discussing the Chinese Communist movement.

Revolutions, he said, are caused by hunger, not merely physical hunger, but hunger of equality, freedom and brotherhood.

The Chinese upheaval was based on the latter, in his opinion.

Dr. B. B. Weatherall introduced the speaker.

Ralph Watt, coach of the Palm Springs high school basketball team, was introduced and spoke on the achievements of the Indian hoopers this season and warned the Lions that if they wanted to get seats at next Tuesday's CIF play-off game at the local gym, they "had better come early."

Palm Springs meets Citrus high school here in the first elimination game for the southland championship Tuesday.

Featured in the presentation are such phenomena as "Craters of the Moon," the Lost River, "Thousand Springs" and many of the wild animals abounding in the magnificent Sawtooth Mountains.

The program is scheduled in the Museum as are all the events of that Community Chest-sponsored agency. There is no charge, and the public is invited.

Urges Separate U.S. Fish Agency

WASHINGTON—(UP)—Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) has proposed that an independent government Fisheries Commission be established to revive the nation's lagging fishing industry.

He said establishment of a Fisheries Commission would "relieve American fisheries of bureaucratic bungling" and take them "out of politics."

His proposed five-man commission would take over the Department of Interior's authority over fisheries and the department's job of protecting seals, whales and other mammals.

South Carolina passed the two million mark in population in the 1950 census.

New $2 Million Apartment Development is Announced

Louis Lenzer, Long Beach jeweller, today announced the Silver Top "Own Your Own Apartment" project is now ready to be offered to the public, having received a permit from the California Real Estate Commissioner.

Arrangements have been completed with the Bank of America to handle all details of the funds in escrow and other provisions for the owner and the purchasers. Earl R. O'Brien, local real estate investment counselor, has been appointed counselor for the entire development.

THE SILVER TOP "Own Your Own Apartment" project will give the purchaser a deed to their apartment and the cost will be $6500 unfurnished or $7250 furnished. The project is located on 30 acres of land owned by Lenzer on San Rafael Drive, one-fifth mile east of Palm Canyon Drive and one-half mile north of the Racquet Club and near the proposed San Jacinto Tramway terminal base.

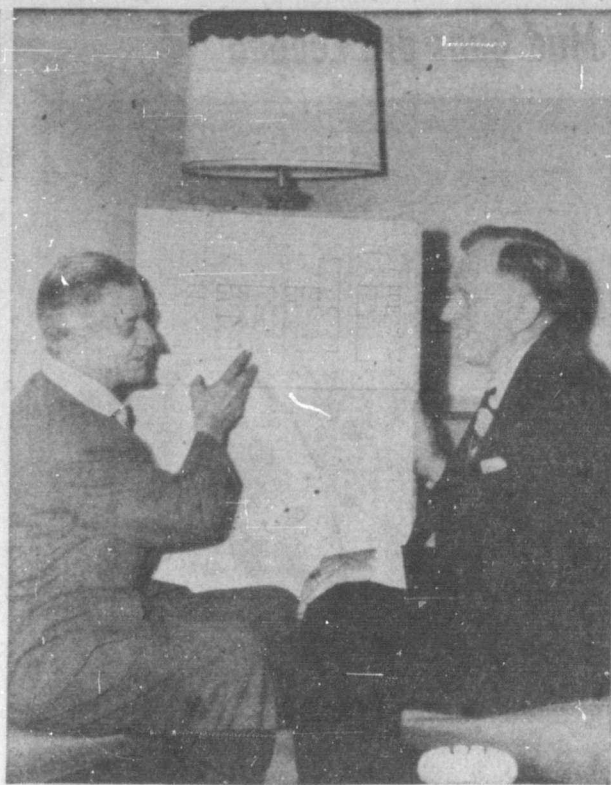

Estimated cost of the first unit will be approximately $396,000, which will comprise 52 apartments covering approximately four acres of the 30 acres owned by Lenzer.

The first unit will have a swimming pool and a sun bathing area, and half of the unit is already constructed.

TOTAL COST of the entire development, consisting of 500 apartments, will be approximately $2 million. A building intended for a supper club is completed which contains murals by Mari in the "Gay Nineties" motif. It has a seating capacity of 200 people and parking space for a similar number of cars.

One model studio apartment is now open for inspection by the public and is completely furnished in modern design by Walter Wood of the California Furniture Group. Each apartment will contain a kitchen with dinette area and a general chef kitchen unit with oven, broiler, refrigerator, freezer, twin sinks and garbage disposal. The bathroom has ceramic tile, and each apartment will have refrigeration cooling system as well as its own patio area.

It is planned to construct a shopping center for the project and for the residents of the north side of Palm Springs along the San Rafael business frontage.

Check Suspect Plans to Fight Return to Ariz.

A 28-year-old ex-convict, arrested here Wednesday for passing a bad check, told police he will fight extradition proceedings to keep from facing his probation officer in Arizona.

The suspect, Clement Martin Jepson, whose wife and child are living in North Hollywood, told interrogating officer Sgt. Ted Greene that his probation officer in Montrose, Ariz., "has it in for him." Jepson said he will not agree to waive extradition to face that officer.

Jepson, who says he is a uranium prospector and promoter, was arrested after a hotel manager called police to say he had passed a $32 bad check.

Sgt. Ted Greene said he communicated with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a similar state agency, Criminal Identification and Investigation, and found that Jepson should be held for parole violation.

The suspect, who said he was given three blank checkbooks after asking for them at a local gas station, apparently passed more than one bad check, for there are six blanks missing, and Greene can account for three only.

Greene said he found the suspect wanted because about $3,000 worth of bad checks in Denver and Montrose that he was supposed to repay have been ignored.

California authorities gave Jepson a clean bill as far as crimes other than the present one are concerned in this state.

The suspect, will have an opportunity to fight extradition through legal channels.

Unedited

By BILL RASHALL

John Archibald called today to report that he saw a 1956 license plate which made him almost swoon with such ejaculations as Oh, Oh, Oh! The plate read DTs.

And then there is Phat Graettinger who has new plates too, and they read, numerically "502". That number indicates under the state laws that you have been driving while drunk. Of course, (please forgive me) Phat never takes a drink. That line was written in the event some motorcycle cop should accidentally on purpose read this column.

And to E. Roy Fitzgerald I just learned today that it is treason for an Irishman to drink anything else other than Irish whiskey. Of course E. Roy doesn't take a drink but I'm a-wareing him that in the event he reaches for a bottle of Scotch—it's treason. And E. Roy, you can tell that to that Irish hooligan by the name of Irish back in Chicago.

CHARLES IRWIN, the famous character actor who is as Irish as Patty's pig, gave me the above and a story about his father who lived to be—remember this—to 124 years and not days—and he drank Irish whiskey.

Irwin declares begorra that there have always been two kinds of whiskey in Ireland, the loving kind and the fighting kind. Irwin says that his father used to place a good full glass of good Irish whiskey, mind you, m'lud, beside his bed.

Then, with book in hand, he would dip his tasting finger in the glass and allow the fragrance of the old sod to evaporate in his mouth. When the glass was empty after repeated dippings of the finger the elder Irwin was, and you can believe this or not, finished—that is, with the reading of the book. One page. No more.

This gentle fellow, who should not be gentle at all but more or less harsh with people and their petty foibles, is in truth a grand fellow and a great story teller, and by the way a great poet as well.

I'M GOING to delve into this Mickey Finn story. There are some aspects of the yarn which needs extensive exploring. Mickey certainly remembers when I warned him not to give up his job on the Los Angeles Police Department and eventual retirement that would guarantee security for his wife and children. 'nuf said until tomorrow after I have had a talk with some of the people who were going to back him and a certain gentleman, who I have been led to believe, asked Mickey Finn to come down to Palm Springs, resign his job, and start the Mickey Finn Boys Club. Nothing wrong, my dear friends, but I just want to know for the sake of all of you.

The beautiful wall clock in Zanville's pointed past the hour of 2:30 a.m. and the fellow that sat immediately beneath it seemed oblivious to the time until toward the East the sky began to turn to a pale grey glow. Which leads me to believe as I always have that fellows can have such a great time—and without women, too. Intagine that. They were Larry Finley of TV and Radio fame; Pat O'Dea a new father (and what was he doing out at that hour?). Herb Rogers (I'm told he produces plays or somethin') and Steve Beck, a total stranger to me—or have I made my usual mistake.

First there was $75,000 earmarked for a new city hall. Now we learn it's going to cost more than $300,000 and then on top of that, me friends, the city manager has to have an administrative assistant. This town is growing beyond all bounds. Glory be.

Voice of the Desert

(THIS COLUMN CONCERNING THE RIVERSIDE COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT, IS CONTINUED FROM LAST WEEK)

THIS YEAR A BRANCH office was established in Indio to serve the immediate needs of the Valley area.

The deputy probation officers in the various communities to which they are assigned participate in activities such as community councils, the formation of club programs for youth, work with schools and P.T.A. groups and act in an advisory capacity for general community planning.

The National Probation and Parole Association and the California Probation and Parole Association, as well as the California Youth Authority, have adopted as a basic case load for supervision alone approximately sixty cases per deputy. The average deputy probation officers in Riverside county doing investigations and supervision, are actually supervising some 110 to 130 people each, who have to be contacted at least once each month and sometimes as often as once each week.

Therefore, even though the Welfare and Institutions Code provides that a probation officer may participate in a delinquent prevention program, it is virtually impossible due to the fact that most deputy probation officers are unable to adequately do the work which is presently assigned and required by statute.

In addition to the formal cases referred to the juvenile division, last year the juvenile deputies conducted in excess of 500 traffic hearings. This program was instituted in 1948 and requires that every minor who receives a citation must appear with one or both of his parents, to discuss not only the citation at hand but the general driving practices of the minor. By and large this has been a successful program, and last year alone eliminated the burden of handling some five hundred additional matters in Juvenile Court. Last year the Probation Department processed a total of 3,753 cases, twenty-five hundred of which could conceivably have been placed in a State Prison or Youth Authority facility, at a cost of approximately $3,000,000 to the taxpayer, if it weren't for probation services. This Department last year, with the assistance of the District Attorney's office, collected $349,826, approximately $250,000 of which was returned to the coffers of Riverside county. It might also be interesting to note that the Department travelled 163,000 miles, due to the geographic area of the county.

In spite of the overload of work in excess of 100 matters were adjusted each month on an informal basis. These are matters which conceivably could have come to the attention of Juvenile Court.

It should be noted, too, that even though numbers seem extremely alarming, less than 2 percent of the children of Riverside county came to the attention of the Juvenile Court last year. It is felt that by providing adequate probation services that many of the repeat cases can be eliminated, and that many children will not merely progress to states prison and many adults will actually find themselves.

It seems to me that each and every community within our county should do a self-evaluation to determine what child welfare services are available for all children, not just those involved in trouble, but those who might be in danger of being involved, and that after an evaluation is made, a concerted effort should be made by the citizenry to develop community resources, and physical facilities to eliminate many of the presently existing pitfalls.

If this Department can be of service to any community in Riverside county considering our limited staff, we will be only too happy to render whatever assistance possible.

Very truly yours,

BERT R. VAN HORN,
Probation Officer

How Can Eisenhower Say "No"?
(Redlands Daily Facts)

That President Eisenhower's doctors find him physically sound is news to warm the hearts of millions of Americans. As a person he has been extremely popular and his attack last September has caused many to offer prayers for his recovery. Those prayers have been answered and to many it will seem almost as if a member of the family has been spared.

Although Dr. Paul Dudley White gave a correct estimate of the President's chances for recovery from the very beginning, the public at large was not so optimistic. No better evidence of the general pessimism is available than the reaction of the stock market. On September 26, when the first trading was done following his heart attack, securities took their worst tumble since 1929. That break was not justified as events now prove — but reflected the feeling of investors at that time.

Regardless of what other consequences the President's case may have, it has provided America with an education about heart trouble. As the stock market reaction shows, the prevailing idea is that if a man's "pump" gives him trouble, he is through — permanently. But such an extreme view is not necessarily correct. The President having made a full recovery as did Lyndon Johnson, Democratic leader in the Senate. The lesson is an encouraging one, for everyone lives in the shadow of a possible heart attack.

The report of the medical board on the Eisenhower case is found to be received with confidence by the public. This is due to Press Secretary James Hagerty's policy of having the doctors give a full and frank report to the public, week by week, on the true state of the President's health. Dr. White, in particular has proved to be a remarkably open medical witness, willing to meet questions head on. It would be difficult to discount the opinions of a physician who has been not only forthright, but sound in previous appraisals of the case.

Of course, the big question remains to be answered: "Will he run for a second term?" As Dr. White said: "The choice is his, not ours."

What he will do is strictly a guessing game, with every citizen qualified to participate on an equal footing with everyone else. However, it hardly seems that a president who had decided against seeking a second term would want his physicians to put him on the spot, the way they did yesterday. They left the responsibility entirely up to him, making it extremely difficult for him to say "No." How can he now give any answer but "Yes"?

Yesterday we had sports all over,
Today we got Harry Oliver.

The Desert Rat came into the office yesterday. Practically the first time I had seen him since he acquired that bright green jeep.

And he was breaking out all over with enthusiasm.

He had just piloted his green vehicle over the new road they are finishing from Garnet to Thousand Palms where he holds forth in his fort.

"First civilian to make that trip," he said. "First car over that fine new highway outside of contractors and their help."

THERE'S JUSTICE in that. For many years Harry Oliver had been pioneering for a new highway in that vicinity. The old road was narrow and full of turns.

Laden with slow-moving behemoth trucks and trailers and impatient motorists, it was also full of accidents. And served to keep the county's traffic toll at a tragic figure.

"Hell's Ten Miles," is what he called it in pestering state highway officials for early action.

And, now that the road is built and will be open soon, it is proper that he was the first to pilot a car over it.

YEARS AGO, too, Oliver said, that "villagers have to come to Thousand Palms if they really want to see the mountains back of Palm Springs."

Along the lines of being too close to the trees to see the forest (or vice versa) he said.

"On this new stretch of highway from Thousand Palms to Garnet, you really see the mountains as you never saw them before," he said. "I saw peaks I never knew were there."

FRANK BOGERT of El Mirador, told Oliver last week: "You ought to be ashamed of that old black hat. I'm going to give you a new one. When do you want it?" "Anytime there's a photographer around," was the reply.

The Desert Rat has been the subject of sketches by the art class at the high school. But he caused a change in seating arrangement of the pupils. He may be getting on in years but he hasn't lost his eye.

Forced to pose quietly and keep his eye on one corner of the room, he saw a pretty girl come into the classroom and take a seat where he couldn't see her without turning his head.

He refused to come back to let them finish the sketches until they moved the girl into his line of vision.

WHEN HE WAS a famous film set designer, Oliver was out on a lonely spot in the desert with the company doing "The Outlaw."

Think of it," he reminisces. "Me and Jane Russell away out there in the lone desert. Only trouble was, there were 126 other people there."

He said his next issue of the Desert Rat Scrapbook will be devoted to the border.

Misunderstood, he was asked if he planned to tell the story about the boarder and the landlady.

"No," he scoffed. "That was just a rumor."

Instead of flowers, send contributions to the Old Home For $2-show-bettors.

Gentlemen:

Although I do not play golf I was very much surprised to see that the golf course bond issue failed to pass. No one can deny its great value in bringing people to the desert.

As a thought, why not organize a private corporation and sell stock to the public? It should not be too difficult to raise the necessary money and the deal might even make a profit.

Both the Los Angeles Coliseum and the Rose Bowl in Pasadena were originally promoted by civic minded people in these communities.

Maybe the land could be purchased on a long-time pay off basis with a low rate of interest for the next five or ten years.

Palm Springs owes you a real vote of thanks in your attempt to help put over this and other issues.

Truly Yours,

Duchess to Get Paltry Sum

NEW YORK — I'm sorry about this—but a million and a half bucks is about all the Duchess of Windsor can hope to get out of her life story.

"Tisn't much—but then as a prominent literary figure keeps telling me, "This babe didn't do it because she needed scratch."

"The Duke," continued this literary light, "grossed $800,000 on his book—and this doll will do twice that."

It really makes you wonder why she bothered taking up writing as a career. The ink-stained Duchess was over at a desk, in an ermine-trimmed black suit, autographing copies of "McCall's," in which the first installment appears, during this conversation at her book-launching party. The Duke, looking school-teacherish with his glasses down on his nose, was autographing, too.

"Oh, no, she never did it because she needed bucks," a man who's on the inside of the deal, assured me.

"You know who their friends are—Murcheson of Texas, etc. And how they struck oil on his ranch . . ."

So it seems the Duchess got around $250,000 from McCall's, more than that from a book publisher, and more than that from a London newspaper syndicate.

"When she said 'O.K., I'll go,' one year ago this week, she really spilled it," the literary man said. "Yes, this gal really dished it herself. We got her on tape, of course, but about all the help she needed was editorial."

I guess there's no need going into how the Duchess got help from Charles J.V. Murphy, who wrote the Duke's book; then swapped him for Cleveland Amory, then dropped him for Murphy, who's probably biting his nails and typewriter ribbon right now "editorialing" some more chapters.

Tax Delinquency Staggering

WASHINGTON — The Joint Congressional Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation has an eye-popping report on unpaid federal taxes.

Last year they soared to a new record high of — $1,718,803,759. This stupendous total is more than seven times the estimated $230,000,000 federal surplus on June 30, the end of the current fiscal year. The budget hasn't been balanced since 1951.

This new delinquency record is also larger than the $1,715,000,000 budget for all the vital defense and other activities of the Atomic Energy Commission; and almost as much as the combined budgets ($1,852,000,000) of five of the ten cabinet-rank agencies of the government — the Departments of State, Justice, Post-office, Interior and Labor.

Further, this upward trend is continuing. The Joint Committee's report estimates that by May of this year the amount of uncollected federal taxes will skyrocket to $1,925,000,210.

These startling totals are records in the number of delinquent taxpayers as well as in dollars and cents.

In 1954, the Internal Revenue Service had 1,725,474 "outstanding and uncollected accounts" for a total of $1,614,494,281, as against 1,195,000 who owed the government taxes the year previous. Last year, the number of delinquent taxpayers jumped to over 1,800,000.

The Revenue Service itself is the source of all these jolting figures. The report in the Joint Committee's hands was compiled by the Revenue Service. Whether it will be published is conjectural.

THE REASONS — Meanwhile, the backstage report is being closely examined by Committee-men who want to cut individual taxes this year.

They view the nearly $2,000,000,000 in unpaid taxes as a powerful argument for their demanding a tax slash. Payment of even part of this huge indebtedness would offset most or all the revenue lost from tax reduction. How far this contention will get when that issue comes up later in the session is unpredictable. But the Revenue Service's revealing report is certain to figure importantly in the battle.

Former Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews attributed two causes as chiefly responsible for the gain backlog of unpaid taxes. At a private meeting with the House Appropriations Committee last year, he listed these reasons as follows:

"(1) Collection difficulties resulting from an urgently-needed reorganization of the scandal-ravaged Revenue Service and the installation of a new accounting system. (2) The inability of taxpayers to meet their levies owing to economic setbacks, particularly among small businessmen. The number of these expiring concerns is increasing, and many of them owe taxes to the government, including social security and withholding taxes that they collected from employees."

New York and Philadelphia headed the list for the highest percentage and amount of unpaid federal taxes. New York topped Philadelphia by a wide margin in amount, while Philadelphia was far ahead of New York on a percentage basis.

Comprehensive La Quinta Zoning Plan is Approved

LA QUINTA — A comprehensive zoning plan for the La Quinta area was approved by the board of supervisors this week following the closing of a hearing which had been continued January 23 to allow the planning commission to reconsider zoning in four areas about which new protests had been received.

In addition to the rezoning of four areas, the commission advised the supervisors Monday that still another change in the plan had developed from additional testimony submitted in the commission hearing. It concerned changing from R-1 to R-2 an area lying between Avenues Bermudas and Obregon and Calles Monterey and Chillon.

M. A. Hoffman presented a petition bearing 20 signatures opposing the additional change, and letters from the La Quinta Chamber of Commerce and Dr. Henry S. Weber of India, voiced a similar protest.

The four changes which the planning commission had under study at the request of the supervisors were made in the final plan, but the additional R-1 to R-2 which the planning commission recommended for an area for which consideration had not been asked by the board, was left out and lots lying between Avenues Bermudas and Obregon and Calles Monterey and Chillon will remain R-1.

The four changes made from the plan as it was presented January

23 are as follows:

R-1 to W-2, La Quinta Hotel property.

C-P to R-3 on southeast portion of the Desert Club property; R-1 to R-3 on 40 acres at southeast corner of Calle Durango and Avenida Bermudas; C-P to R-3 at intersection of Avenue 50 and Marshall avenue.

R-3 to C-P on four tier lots north and south of the park known as Blocks No. 128, 129, 132 and 133 of Vale La Quinta subdivision.

R-2 to R-3 within area bounded on north by Avenue 50, on south by Avenida Nuestra, on east by Calle Rondo and on the West by Marshall street.

Coronation Nights Prove Very Popular

Last Monday's "Coronation" was King and Queen and Prince and Princess night. The queen was Julia Kuhn of Long Beach; King, Dr. Kenneth Hayes of India; Princess, Mildred Scott of India, and the Prince, Dr. Bryant of Roseburg, Oregon. Two promising young singers who are appearing at the Date Festival were part of the program: Bob Wool, tenor, Dana Fallon, soprano, and Kay King, accompanist. Among those present were Mr. Gladstone, author of the famous "Let me call you Sweetheart" ballad, and H. C. "Whitely" Domstad, mayor of Bremerton, Washington.

"Coronation Night" February 27, will present an outstanding show, including Miss Arlene Harris, well known TV monologist who appeared all last year with Ina May Hutton, all girl band daily program, and Nancy McDonald, young singer. Both Miss Harris and Miss McDonald have just returned from a foreign tour for the armed forces that included Africa, Italy and Iceland. The usual "Coronation" ceremony will precede the show.

The Irving Florshims have arrived in Palm Springs . . . and opened their house at 688 East Vereda Sur . . . Their many friends have been anticipating the arrival of these popular Chicagoans . . .

Rebby and G. K. Zain left Wednesday by train for New Orleans . . . and will fly back to Miami . . . to be there for the Ten Year Celebration of the Miracle Mile . . . The Celebration on Tuesday is being staged by the merchants . . . and Zain who is the founder of what is acclaimed the most beautiful street in America, will be especially honored . . . The Zains had hoped to stay longer . . . and may possibly be back in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Andrews (he was formerly president of the Hotel New Yorker) arrived this week . . . and are occupying their cottage at Thunderbird . . .

Margaret and S. P. Manasse, who recently sold their Warm Sands Villa, will leave March 6 for Acapulco . . . where they will spend a fortnight with Carmen Considine . . . whose house overlooks the bay . . . Manasses will fly to Acapulco from Tijuana.

Where else but Palm Springs or New York . . . would you find such a collection of tycoons as were gathered around a table at Don the Beachcomber's on Wednesday evening? . . . Benjamin Fairless (U. S. Steel), Leonard Firestone (tires), Sam Goldwyn (movie magnate), Sid Richardson (rated high on the list of America's wealthiest men), and Freeman Gosden (of Amos and Andy) . . . That Amos had better watch himself . . . It reminds me of the joke Dave Barry is telling at Chi Chi this week . . . about how he went into the post office to make out his income tax return . . . and copied the answers from the man next to him . . . The man turned out to be Howard Hughes . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marcus (of the fabulous Nieman-Marcus store) are at La Quinta Hotel for a fortnight . . . and the Bill Kecks (Superior Oil) were down this weekend to show some of their horses at the Indio Fair . . . ### Zasu Pitts Star of Next Week's Play Zasu Pitts will star in "Solid Gold Cadillac," a comedy, at Herb Rogers' Palm Springs Playhouse opening Tuesday evening, February 28, under sponsorship of the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild. The play was written by George Kaufman and Howard Teichmann.

Supporting Miss Pitts is a cast headed by Philip Tonge, distinguished stage and screen actor; Marrian Walters, William Hughes, Jeff Alexander, Carl Christie and Phyllis Flax. Tonge portrays "McKeever," chairman of the board of directors of a large corporation. Miss Pitts will portray a small stockholder, representing a few shares, who registers her opinions at a shareholders' meeting, with unique and amusing complications. Finally, she ends up in an executive position with the corporation, but management eventually contrives to oust her. Miss Pitts is seen in a role familiar to a legion of playgoers and moviegoers—a bewildered and bewildering lady.

Michael Ferrell will stage "Solid Gold Cadillac," which Rogers will present nightly at 8:30 o'clock through Sunday, March 4.

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Patent Office

NEW YORK — Two conclusions seem fairly obvious today in the wake of the permanent suspension of miler Wes Santee.

The first is that the Kansas runner took more in expenses than the amateur law allows. The second is that Santee, doing no more than many others, is a sacrificial offering to the AAU's own guilty conscience.

Santee's mistake was in taking a check instead of cash.

YOU MAY DEBATE all day that Santee was no more guilty than many others and that his payoff was rather trivial, being only $1500 in 22 meets. But you can't avoid the fact that he did accept excessive payments beyond what the AAU law allows.

The fact that everybody else on the whole is wrong does not make Santee right. Possibly you can feel there is some basis to the charge that somebody is out to "get" him. As the biggest name in track and field he was exceptionally vulnerable. Had the AAU made an "example" out of, let's say, somebody in the mile walk, nobody would have paid any particular notice.

SANTEE NEVER came out and said that he was being tagged with a bad rap. His attorney, to whom I talked several times, never insisted that Wes was completely innocent.

The major demand was that the case be sent back to Santee's home Missouri Valley Association.

They had cleared him once of these same charges. The 21 to 7 vote indicates that even there some of those sitting in judgment weren't completely certain that he hadn't been "on the take" to a certain extent. But Santee's counsel, shooting to have the case sent back for another home town decision, knew it was the only manner in which he could win.

IT IS RIDICULOUS to insist that being barred as a "professional" would have any bad after effects on the Santee name. Nobody ever thought that such previously disgraced athletes as Jim Thorpe, Paavo Nurmi and Gunder Haag should be in prison because they made a little above expenses and thus were barred from amateur ranks.

The onus is, and should be, on the AAU and its niggardly, profit-making system which doesn't allow comfortable expense accounts to the men who "make" its track meets.

COLLEGES HAVE an out on their pinch-penny methods on the theory that their contests are part of the collegiate athletic system. But men such as Santee and other headlines are not collegians being paid off in part with an education. Santee is a Marine lieutenant. Horace Ashenfelter is an FBI man. Bob Richards is a teacher. And so it goes.

When they give up personal time for training and take long periods away from their families and work to compete in meets which are strictly money-makers for the organizations putting them on they should be allowed a fair return. True, they aren't professionals. But their expense accounts should be equitable and comfortable.

Actually, this is accepted even by the AAU. But their method is one of under-the-table. Santee's big mistake was in taking a check instead of demanding cash like the rest do. He was, in the end, a victim of the system.

BOWLING

Hensen's Radio and TV team, of the Palm Springs Desert League, took team honors this week at the Palm Springs Bowling Academy regular weekly meet.

Their series score was 2757, and game score was 945.

Bill Hendrickson took both individual honors, with his game of 217, and series of 550.

Four teams played, and scores in both matches were three to one.

Chesters Real Estate beat the Police team, and Hensen's beat the Hotshots.

Concours Starts Racing Weekend

Sports Cars to Take Over Palm Springs

Time Trials Set for Tomorrow with Final Events Sunday

Another entry was added yesterday to the list of fine cars to be judged at tomorrow's Concours d'Elegance on the El Mirador Hotel front lawn when news broke of the first Simca of 1956 arriving for sale in Palm Springs.

Thunderbird member Bill Ellsworth, who with his wife had two cars entered, heard the Simca was arriving for display at Nick Pastor Imported Cars, bought it without seeing it, and entered it for concours competition.

THOUGH THE TOTAL of entries in the concours isn't known, it's expected to reach 40 cars before tomorrow noon, starting time.

The concours will face the competition of racing thrills at the airport. Time trials start at noon tomorrow, and probably will follow a schedule set up in the past: Low-lap races later in the afternoon.

The finals will be Sunday.

ENTRIES INCLUDE: John W. Lawrence of Pasadena will drive an MG Mark II Production which has won fourteen trophies in the last year. Lawrence is known as "the cigar." He smokes a dozen a day, maintains he could not race without one.

Ed Tomerlin of Bakersfield will be driving a Porsche Continental Speedster Production which he says will be one of the few "straight" speedsters now competing and an excellent match with the new MG-"A".

JOHN PORTER of Newport Beach will drive a Porsche Spyder 550 equipped with the new oversized front brakes which just arrived from Germany. These brakes give a 60 per cent greater braking area than the "stock" Spyder and may well settle the question, does the car with the best brakes win the race? As Johnny finished second at the last Palm Springs race he may well move to top place this time.

Rudy Cleve, genial host of the Blarney Castle, will drive a Mercedes Benz 300 S L he captured a first at Glendale with.

Dr. Troy McHenry and Jay Dettman are also in the running with Porsche Speedsters.

Bruins Meet Oregon

LOS ANGELES — UCLA, unbeaten in conference play, tonight goes after its 11th straight Pacific Coast Conference victory when the Bruins host the University of Oregon in the first of a two-game series.

"MORE ELBOW!" says Earle Grace to Marguerite Chapman as they ready a sport car for the Concours d'Elegance to be held at El Mirador tomorrow starting at noon. Actress Chapman will be hostess of the two-day event. Grace will act as host at Nick Pastors, which he's set up as pre-race headquarters. He is president of Palm Springs Sport Car Club. ### Indians Close RCL Season Against Perris Tonight

By DAVID FISHER

The amazing Palm Springs Indians, who last week sewed up their first Riverside County basketball championship, close their most successful RCL campaign in the schools history tonight when they take on the winless Perris Panthers. The Indians will be looking for their thirteenth straight win and it will take a supreme effort by the last place Perris five to deprive them of it.

This will be the Redmen's last, weights will give them the league's fourth position. Watt's B's beat every squad in the R. C. L. at least once except for Coachella. Students at Palm Springs can't help but look toward the C. I. F. opener on Tuesday. Citrus, the Indians first round opponents, are the defending champions and one of this year's favorites to cop the honors.

Listed below are Tuesday's CIF games.
Palm Springs (Champion Riverside County League) meets Citrus runner-up in Tri-County League.
San Jacinto—runner up Riverside County League faces Big Bear—first place in Arrowhead League.
Brea—Olinda—winner—Orange County League goes against Newman—second place in Arrowhead League.
Vista—runner up in Avocado League runs into Julian—the Southern League champs.
Ramona—second place in Southern League tangles with Coronado-Metropolitan League third.
Getting byes are Brawley, Tustin, and Puenia.

A win tonight for the local light-

Hopalong to Present Polo Cups Sunday

Final Contests in Tourney at SMC and Polo Grounds

Hopalong Cassidy will present trophies Sunday to winning polo team members and the Pacific Coast 10-goal Champions after they complete their last games this weekend at Shadow Mountain stables and the Polo Grounds.

Hopalong, known to his Palm Desert neighbors as Bill Boyd, may be accompanied by Mrs. Boyd at the ceremony scheduled for Sunday afternoon at the Shadow Mountain Stables polo field.

ACCORDING TO tournament director Ted Pierce and stables manager Lisle Nixon, the last four games to be played in the 10-goal championship tournament will be split between the stables and the Polo Grounds here.

The Palm Springs Red Diamonds, who have not lost a game in the tournament will play defending Pacific Coast 10-goal Champions San Bernardino Saturday in the opening game at the stables, followed by a battle between second place Shadow Mountain Polo Club and fourth place La Jolla.

The standings are a compilation after two weeks of play in the six-team tournament.

AT THE POLO GROUNDS, fifth place Beverly Hills will play sixth spot San Francisco, and Sunday will see Beverly Hills play defending champions San Bernardino, who are going into the weekend as third place contenders.

Sunday at the stables, play-offs will be featured, and the presentations to follow.

Seixas Upset in National Indoor Net Title Play

NEW YORK — Dark-horse Sid Schwartz of Brooklyn, who ousted top-seeded Vic Seixas in straight sets, collides with red-hot Ulf Schmidt of Sweden tonight in a feature quarter-final match in the National Indoor Tennis championships.

Schwartz took the measure of Seixas, America's top-ranking amateur player, 6-3, 12-10 in Thursday night's second round—once again displaying Seixas' inability to play his best game in the hard wooden courts used in indoor competition.

In the other quarter-finals tonight Davidson meets Armando Vieira of Brazil; former U. S. champion Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., meets Bob Howe of Australia, and Gil Shea of Los Angeles meets Grant Golden of Wilmette, Ill.

Rain Threat Big Worry at Santa Anita

Entry of Swaps in 100-Grander Rests on Weather

ARCADIA, Calif. — The nursery jingle of "rain, rain go away; come back again some other day" was the haunting refrain that ran through the minds of Santa Anita racing officials today as the accepted entries for tomorrow's $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap.

The track was soggy from yesterday's downpour but a forecast for dry weather today and tomorrow had Santa Anita's officialdom standing around with crossed fingers hoping the weatherman was right.

Rain hurts the chances of Swaps running his best race.

Swaps has become the biggest drawing card in Western racing since Seabiscuit nearly 20 years ago. Owner Rex C. Ellsworth and trainer Mesach Tenney said that the chances of Swaps not running are remote, but a deep, holding track might lead them to decide against his going.

The chances of an off track pleased at least five leading contenders in the race. They are Bobby Brocato, Social Outcast, Trackmaster, Traffic Judge and Honeys Alibi, any one of which could win the race.

AAU Quiz Is On

SAN FRANCISCO — The AAU is pushing an investigation of track and field meet directors at major events around the country as a result of the Wes Santee ban, Carl Hansen, AAU president, said today.

Wind is Hazard in Houston Open

HOUSTON, Tex. — More warm gulf winds were expected to batter slight Jerry Barber, Los Angeles, today as his five-under-par 67 Thursday headed the field into the second round of the $30,000 Houston Open.

Only 30 of the field of 160 broke par Thursday when strong winds with gusts up to 25 miles an hour swept the 7122-yard Memorial Park course. The wind helped big George Bayer overdrive the 375-yard 9th hole.

Bill Casper Jr., Chula Vista, Calif., and Jackie Burke Jr., Kiamnesia Lake, N. Y., were tied one stroke back with 68s.

In a five-way tie at 69 were Joe Jimenez, Midlothian, Ill., Mike Dietz, Lake Orion, Mich., Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., and Bayer, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Schizophrenic's Brain Found Using Much Less Oxygen

SAN FRANCISCO — (U) — If you've noticed your brain has been using less oxygen lately — watch out! You may be a schizophrenic.

A group of scientists at the University of California medical school have found that chronic schizophrenics with an illness of four years or more used "noticeably" less oxygen in their brains.

"Individuals with schizophrenia of shorter duration did not show a rate of oxygen use significantly below par," they said.

The physicians said it did not appear that the defect in brain chemistry was the cause of the illness. But, they said, since it apparently shows up only after several years, it would "seem to be" a result of long-standing schizophrenia.

Negroes Shun Cars in 'Spiritual' Bus Protest

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Thousands of Negroes shunned their cars and walked to work today in a "spiritual demonstration," launched by song and prayer, against the arraignment of their leaders for staging a city-wide racial bus boycott.
Car pools, taxi ferrying employer-employees and other devices by which the Negroes have avoided using buses for 11 weeks were abandoned. Suburban commuters parked their cars at the city's edge and joined the walking horde. "Not a single race-loving Negro will start his car or ride a car," the Rev. R. D. Abernathy told a throng he estimated at 5000, which jammed his First Baptist Church Thursday night on the eve of "prayer-pilgrimage day."
"And you know nobody will ride the buses," he added. The big church, filled from balconies to the basement, thundered with applause.

There had been talk of marching on the county courthouse where Abernathy and 25 other Negro ministers among the approximately 50 Negroes under arrest were scheduled to be arraigned today, but the clergymen urged their followers to go about their usual business—on foot.

Knowland Sets New March 7 Deadline for White House Bid

WASHINGTON — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California has set a new deadline before taking a major step in pushing his bid for the GOP presidential nomination.
Knowland said yesterday he will join in support of President Eisenhower in the California presidential primary if the President announces his candidacy by March 7.
Otherwise, informed sources said Knowland plans to enter the California primary himself. The deadline for filing in California is March 7.

Other political developments:
SEN. WAYNE MORSE (D-Ore) invited Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) and Adlai Stevenson to enter Oregon's Democratic presidential primary. Both candidates have indicated concern that their entry in Oregon's May 18 primary might jeopardize Morse's election chances. But Morse said he would "welcome" them.

Sunspots Lead to Vast Hunt for Missing Sub

LONDON — The British submarine Acheron, reported missing, was finally contacted by radio and an intensive air search for it called off, the British Air Ministry reported today.
The 1120-ton submarine with 85 men aboard dived into the frigid Arctic waters off Greenland yesterday, and had not been checked in by radio at the appointed time early today.
The entire facilities of the Anglo-American air-sea rescue service was thrown into action. But, instead of being sunk, the Acheron had been unable to report because of a global radio washout due to an unprecedented spate of sunspots.

Snyder: 'President May be Better Heart Risk Because of His Attack'

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press White House Writer
THOMASVILLE, Ga. — President Eisenhower's doctor said today the Chief Executive might be a better heart risk than someone who never has suffered a heart attack, although there is "no guarantee" against another attack.
Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, the White House physician, discussed the President's condition with reporters as Mr. Eisenhower, with Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey, started out on a full day of quail hunting in the piney woods of South Georgia.
The President returns to Washington tomorrow morning.
Snyder said he had "no impression at all" whether his patient would seek a second term.
But as to whether Mr. Eisenhower was physically unable to run, Snyder said:
"These physical accidents (heart attacks) come out of nowhere and he certainly has no guarantee that in trying this thing again he won't have another attack."
"All he can do is trust in God
